

Global Business Resource Solutions (GBRS)

Cập nhật: 02-04-2011

GBRS functions to provide corporate and social services consulting by industry/sector and outsourcing.

It is the desire of every Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to operate a successful business; however it is not easy to build an effective, sustainable company bringing value to clients. It is important to meet the needs of employees as well as generate a profit for the business. Competition is global and it is important for businesses to improve, renovate, and make decisions without hesitation. The GBRS provides solutions for effective operations and the means to reach targets and objectives. GBRS provides businesses with successful managers, researchers, and experts with in the local and global marketplace. GBRS provides staff if necessary and provides organizations with professionals from the global marketplace enabling CEOs and business to master their problems and be successful.

Following is a list of corporate and social consulting services provided online or offline:

- Corporate & management systems consulting services
- Social projects, research projects, and survey services
- Corporate/supplier credit assessment reporting services
- Board of Management secretarial service and management position outsourcing
- Editing, writing, proof-reading and publishing business reports, journals, corporate policies and procedures, and other documents
- Online library and reading room service