Seminar in Ha Tinh University to introduce the International Student Project

Cập nhật: 26-09-2011

The objective is to equip last year students with practical, useable knowledge and prepare them for the work place, G-BI International Knowledge Management JSC and Ha Tinh University has organized a seminar to introduce project “Transferring Work Experience and Effective Working Methods in Business” at the University’s hall on the 6 September 2011. More than 1.400 students joined in this event. After the seminar, many students interested and registered to participate in this meaningful social project.

Ha Tinh University is a public university provides multi-level trainings, with various majors, to provide educated human resource for the development of economics – social demand for the country in general and for Ha Tinh Province in particular. The University has been providing trainings for 40 different majors from intermediate to college to University and post graduate levels. Ha Tinh University was established follow the Decision 318/QD-TTg on 19 March 2007 of the Prime Minister of Viet Nam.